

Archives of the American College of Surgeons

Research Room Rules

1. Use of the research room is by appointment only. It may be necessary to close the room during the lunch hour
2. All briefcases, backpacks, and other personal belongings must be stored in a designated cabinet drawer while you use materials in the archives. Food or beverages are allowed, copyright and intellectual property
11. The researcher must be based on research

I have read the rules